FIRST AMENDMENT TO THE
THIRD AMENDED & RESTATED
BYLAWS OF CNL HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES, INC.

By resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of CNL Healthcare Properties, Inc. (the “Company”), the Board of Directors (the “Board”) has authorized the following amendment to the Company’s Bylaws to be effective as of January 1, 2016:

Section 11 of Article III, is to be deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

SECTION 11. COMPENSATION. Each Director is entitled to receive $45,000 annually for serving on the Board of Directors, as well as fees of $2,000 per meeting of the Board of Directors attended or participated in telephonically. Each Director is entitled to receive $2,000 per Audit Committee meeting attended or participated in telephonically. In addition to the fee for each Audit Committee meeting, the chairman of the Audit Committee shall receive an annual retainer of $10,000 and shall be entitled to receive a fee of $2,000 per meeting attended or telephonic meeting in which such chairman participates with the Company’s independents accountants as a representative of the Audit Committee. In addition, each Director is entitled to receive $2,000 per meeting of any other committee of the Board of Directors attended or telephonic meeting of any such committee in which the Director participates. Directors that are members of a special committee are entitled to receive fees of $2,000 per day for service as representatives of such special committee in lieu of the above compensation (to the extent that such Directors devote in excess of three (3) hours on such day to matters relating to such special committee). The Company will not pay any compensation to the Directors of the Company who also serve as officers and directors of the Advisor or are employees of an Affiliate of the Advisor (as such term is defined in the Articles of Incorporation). No additional compensation shall be paid for attending the annual stockholders meeting.

The foregoing is certified as the First Amendment to the Third Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company, adopted by the Board (including a majority of the Independent Directors, as such term is defined in the Company’s Articles of Incorporation, as amended) on November 11, 2015 with such amendment being effective as of January 1, 2016.

THIRD AMENDED AND RESTATED BYLAWS OF CNL HEALTHCARE PROPERTIES, INC.

ARTICLE I OFFICES

SECTION 1. PRINCIPAL OFFICE. The principal office of CNL Healthcare Properties, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the “Company”), shall be located at such place or places as the Board of Directors may designate in the State of Maryland.

SECTION 2. ADDITIONAL OFFICES. The Company may have additional offices at such places as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine or the business of the Company may require.

ARTICLE II MEETINGS OF STOCKHOLDERS

SECTION 1. PLACE. All meetings of stockholders shall be held at the principal office of the Company or at such other place within the United States as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting.

SECTION 2. ANNUAL MEETING. An annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of Directors, as such term is defined below, and the transaction of any business within the powers of the Company shall be held upon reasonable notice and not less than thirty (30) days after delivery of the annual report.

SECTION 3. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of Preferred Shares (as such term is defined in the Company’s charter (the “Articles of Incorporation”)) to elect additional Directors under specified circumstances, special meetings of the stockholders may be called by (i) the chief executive officer, the president or the chairman of the Board of Directors; (ii) a majority of the Board of Directors; (iii) a majority of the Independent Directors (as such term is defined herein); or (iv) the secretary at the request in writing of stockholders holding outstanding Equity Shares (as such term is defined in the Articles of Incorporation) representing at least ten percent (10%) of all votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at any such special meeting. Written notice of any special meeting called pursuant to subsection (iv) will be provided to all stockholders within ten (10) days after any such request is received, stating the purpose of the meeting and time and place of the meeting specified in the request, or if none is specified, a time and place convenient to the stockholders. The meeting shall be held on a date not less than fifteen (15) nor more than sixty (60) days after distribution of the notice.

SECTION 4. NOTICE. Not less than fifteen (15) nor more than sixty (60) days before each meeting of stockholders, the secretary shall give to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting, and to each stockholder not entitled to vote who is entitled to notice of the meeting, written or printed notice stating the time and place of the meeting and, in the case of a special meeting or as otherwise may be required by statute or these Third Amended and Restated Bylaws (the “Bylaws”), the purpose for which the meeting is called, either by mail to the address of such stockholder as it appears on the records of the Company, by presenting it to such stockholder personally, by leaving it at his residence or usual place of business or by any other means permitted by Maryland law. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the stockholder at his post office address as it appears on the records of the Company, with postage thereon prepaid.

SECTION 5. SCOPE OF NOTICE. Any business of the Company may be transacted at an annual meeting of stockholders without being specifically designated in the notice, except such business as is required by statute to be stated in such notice. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting of stockholders except as specifically designated in the notice.

SECTION 6. QUORUM; ORGANIZATION AND CONDUCT OF MEETING. At any meeting of stockholders, the presence in person or by proxy of the stockholders entitled to cast fifty percent (50%) of all the votes entitled to be cast at the meeting shall constitute a quorum; but this section shall not affect any requirement under any statute, any other provision of these Bylaws, or the Articles of Incorporation for the vote necessary for the adoption of any measure. If, however, such quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the stockholders, the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting, present in person or by proxy, shall have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time to a date not more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the original record date without notice other than announcement at the meeting. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified.

The chairman of the board or such other person who has such authority pursuant to these Bylaws or such other person to whom the chairman of the board has delegated such authority pursuant to these Bylaws shall serve as the chairman of every meeting of stockholders. The order of business and all other matters of procedure at any meeting of stockholders shall be determined by the chairman of the meeting. The secretary, or in the secretary's absence, a person appointed by the chairman of the meeting, shall act as secretary of the meeting. The chairman of the meeting may prescribe such rules, regulations and procedures and take such action as, in the discretion of such chairman, are appropriate for the proper conduct of the meeting, including, without limitation, (i) restricting admission to the time set for the commencement of the meeting; (ii) limiting attendance at the meeting to stockholders of record of the Company, their duly authorized proxies or such other persons as the chairman of the meeting may determine; (iii) limiting participation at the meeting on any matter to stockholders of record of the Company entitled to vote on such matter, their duly authorized proxies or such other persons as the chairman of the meeting may determine; (iv) limiting the time allotted to questions or comments by participants; (v) determining when polls should be opened and closed; (vi) maintaining order and security at the meeting; (vii) removing any stockholder or any other individual who refuses to comply with meeting procedures, rules or guidelines as set forth by the chairman of the meeting; (viii) concluding a meeting or recessing or adjourning the meeting to a later date and time and place announced at the meeting; and (ix) complying with any state and local laws and regulations concerning safety and security. Unless otherwise determined by the chairman of the meeting, meetings of stockholders shall not be required to be held in accordance with the rules of parliamentary procedure.

SECTION 7. VOTING. A majority of all the votes cast at a meeting of stockholders duly called and at which a quorum is present shall be sufficient to elect a Director, notwithstanding the concurrence of the Board of Directors to such action. With respect to the election of Directors, "a majority of all the votes cast" shall mean that a nominee for Director receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the total votes cast for and against or affirmatively withheld as to such nominee. Each share may be voted for as many individuals as there are Directors to be elected and for whose election the share is entitled to be voted. A majority of the votes cast at a meeting of stockholders duly called and at which a quorum is present shall be sufficient to approve any other matter which may properly come before the meeting, unless more than a majority of the votes cast is required by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, each Equity Share owned of record on the applicable record date shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of stockholders. The Company's Advisor (as such term is defined in the Articles of Incorporation), the Directors and any affiliates are prohibited from voting on or consenting to matters submitted to the stockholders regarding the removal of the Advisor, Directors or any affiliate or any transaction between the Company and any of them, nor will such shares be counted in determining a quorum or a majority in such circumstances.

SECTION 8. PROXIES. A stockholder may vote the Equity Shares owned of record by him, either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the stockholder or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. Such proxy shall be filed with the secretary of the Company before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

SECTION 9. VOTING OF SHARES BY CERTAIN HOLDERS. Equity Shares registered in the name of a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity, if entitled to be voted, may be voted by the chief executive officer or a vice president, a general partner, trustee or other fiduciary thereof, as the case may be, or a proxy appointed by any of the foregoing individuals, unless some other person who has been appointed to vote such shares pursuant to a bylaw or a resolution of the Board of Directors of such corporation or other entity presents a certified copy of such bylaw or resolution, in which case such person may vote such shares. Any trustee or other fiduciary may vote shares registered in his name as such fiduciary, either in person or by proxy.

Equity Shares of the Company owned by it or its subsidiaries shall not be voted at any meeting and shall not be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares entitled to be voted at any given time, unless they are held by it in a fiduciary capacity, in which case they may be voted and shall be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

The Directors may adopt by resolution a procedure by which a stockholder may certify in writing to the Company that any Equity Shares registered in the name of the stockholder are held for the account of a specific person other than the stockholder. The resolution shall set forth: the class of stockholders who may make the certification, the purpose for which the certification may be made, the form of certification and the information to be contained in it; if the certification is with respect to a record date or closing of the share transfer books, the time after the record date or closing of the share transfer books within which the certification must be received by the Company; and any other provisions with respect to the procedure which the Directors consider necessary or desirable. On receipt of such certification, the person specified in the certification shall be regarded as, for the purposes set forth in the certification, the stockholder of record of the specified shares in place of the stockholder who makes the certification.

SECTION 10. INSPECTORS. At any meeting of stockholders, the chairman of the meeting may, or upon the request of any stockholder shall, appoint one or more persons as inspectors for such meeting. Such inspectors shall ascertain and report the number of Equity Shares represented at the meeting based upon their determination of the validity and effect of proxies, determine the existence of a quorum, count all votes, report the results and perform such other acts as are proper to conduct the election and voting with impartiality and fairness to all the stockholders.

Each report of an inspector shall be in writing and signed by him or by a majority of them if there is more than one inspector acting at such meeting. If there is more than one inspector, the report of a majority shall be the report of the inspectors. The report of the inspector or inspectors on the number of shares represented at the meeting and the results of the voting shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

SECTION 11. REPORTS TO STOCKHOLDERS. Not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the close of each fiscal year of the Company, the Directors shall deliver or cause to be delivered a report of the business and operations of the Company during such fiscal year to the stockholders, containing (i) financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles as in effect in the United States of America from time to time or such other accounting system accepted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and which are audited and reported on by independent certified public accountants; (ii) the ratio of the costs of raising capital during the period to the capital raised; (iii) the aggregate amount of advisory fees and the aggregate amount of other fees paid to the Company's Advisor and any affiliate of the Advisor by the Company and including fees or charges paid to the Advisor and any affiliate of the Advisor by third parties doing business with the Company; (iv) the Total Operating Expenses (as such term is defined in the Articles of Incorporation) of the Company, stated as a percentage of, for a specified period, the Average Invested Assets (as such term is defined in the Articles of Incorporation) and as a percentage of its Net Income (as such term is defined in the Articles of Incorporation); (v) a report from the Independent Directors that the policies being followed by the Company are in the best interests of its stockholders and the basis for such determination; and (vi) separately stated, full disclosure of all material terms, factors, and circumstances surrounding any and all transactions involving the Company, Directors, Advisor and any Affiliate thereof occurring in the year for which the annual report is made.

SECTION 12. NOMINATIONS AND STOCKHOLDER BUSINESS.

(a) Annual Meetings of Stockholders.

(1) With respect to an annual meeting of stockholders, nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors and the proposal of business to be considered by the stockholders may be made only (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (ii) by any stockholder of the Company who was a stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice, who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complied with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 12(a).

(2) For nominations or other business to be properly brought before an annual meeting by a stockholder pursuant to clause (ii) of paragraph (a)(1) of this Section 12, the stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in writing to the secretary of the Company. To be timely, a stockholder's notice shall be delivered to the secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not less than one hundred twenty (120) days nor more than one hundred fifty (150) days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; provided, however, that in the event that the date of the annual meeting is advanced by more than thirty (30) days or delayed by more than sixty (60) days from such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder to be timely must be so delivered not earlier than the one hundred twentieth (120th) day prior to such annual meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the ninetieth (90th) day prior to such annual meeting. Such stockholder's notice shall set forth: (i) as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or re-election as a Director all information relating to such person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations of proxies for election of Directors, or is otherwise required, in each case pursuant to Regulation 14A (or any successor regulation) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") (including such person's written consent to being named in the proxy statement as a nominee and to serving as a Director if elected); (ii) as to any other business that the stockholder proposes to bring before the meeting, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting, the reasons for conducting such business at the meeting and any material interest in such business of such stockholder or any Stockholder Associated Person (as defined below) and of the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the proposal is made; and (iii) as to the stockholder giving the notice, any Stockholder Associated Person and the beneficial owner, if any, on whose behalf the nomination or proposal is made, the name and address of such stockholder, as they appear on the Company's books, of any Stockholder Associated Person and of such beneficial owner and the class and number of shares of the Company which are owned beneficially and of record by such stockholder, Stockholder Associated Person and such beneficial owner. "Stockholder Associated Person" of any stockholder shall mean (x) any person controlling, directly or indirectly, or acting in concert with, such stockholder, (y) any beneficial owner of shares of stock of the Company owned of record or beneficially by such stockholder and (z) any person controlling, controlled by or under common control with such Stockholder Associated Person.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the second sentence of Section 12(a)(2) to the contrary, in the event that the number of Directors to be elected to the Board of Directors is increased and there is no public announcement naming all of the nominees for Director or specifying the size of the increased Board of Directors made by the Company at least one hundred thirty (130) days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting, a stockholder's notice required by this Section 12(a) shall also be considered timely, but only with respect to nominees for any new positions created by such increase, if it shall be delivered to the secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the day on which such public announcement is first made by the Company.

(b) Special Meetings of Stockholders. Only such business shall be conducted at a special meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting pursuant to the Company's notice of meeting. Nominations of persons for election to the Board of Directors may be made at a special meeting of stockholders at which Directors are to be elected pursuant to the Company's notice of meeting (i) by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or (ii) provided that the Board of Directors has determined that Directors shall be elected at such special meeting, by any stockholder of the Company who is a stockholder of record at the time of giving of notice provided for in this Section 12(b), who is entitled to vote at the meeting and who complied with the notice procedures set forth in this Section 12(b). In the event the Company calls a special meeting of stockholders for the purpose of electing one or more Directors to the Board of Directors, any such stockholder may nominate a person or persons (as the case may be) for election to such position as specified in the Company's notice of meeting, if the stockholder's notice complies with the requirements of Section 12(a)(2) and is delivered to the secretary at the principal executive offices of the Company not earlier than the ninetieth (90th) day prior to such special meeting and not later than the close of business on the later of the sixtieth (60th) day prior to such special meeting or the tenth day following the day on which public announcement is first made of the date of the special meeting and of the nominees proposed by the Directors to be elected at such meeting.

(c) General.

(1) Only such persons who are nominated in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 12 shall be eligible for election by stockholders as Directors and only such business shall be conducted at a meeting of stockholders as shall have been brought before the meeting in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 12. The presiding officer of the meeting shall have the power and duty to determine whether a nomination or any business proposed to be brought before the meeting was made in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 12 and, if any proposed nomination or business is not in compliance with this Section 12, to declare that such defective nomination or proposal be disregarded.

(2) For purposes of this Section 12, “public announcement” shall mean disclosure in a press release reported by the Dow Jones News Service, Associated Press or comparable news service or in a document publicly filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Sections 13, 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

(3) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12, a stockholder also shall comply with all applicable requirements of state law and of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder with respect to the matters set forth in this Section 12. Nothing in this Section 12 shall be deemed to affect any rights of stockholders to request inclusion of proposals in the Company’s proxy statement pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act.

SECTION 13. VOTING BY BALLOT. Voting on any question or in any election may be viva voce unless the presiding officer shall order or any stockholder shall demand that voting be by ballot.

ARTICLE III DIRECTORS

SECTION 1. GENERAL POWERS; NUMBER; QUALIFICATIONS. The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed under the direction of its board of directors (also referred to herein as “Board” or “Board of Directors”, and each director being referred to as a “Director” or collectively, the “Directors”). Notwithstanding the other requirements set forth herein and in the Articles of Incorporation, a Director shall be an individual at least twenty-one (21) years of age who is not under legal disability. The number of Directors that shall constitute the whole board shall not be less than three (3) nor more than eleven (11). Within such limits, the actual number of directors which shall constitute the whole board shall be as fixed from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 2. INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS; QUALIFICATIONS. A majority of Directors of the Company shall be Independent Directors. To qualify as an “Independent Director,” an individual must not be and within the last two years must not have been directly or indirectly associated with the Sponsor (as defined in the Articles of Incorporation) or Advisor by virtue of (i) ownership of an interest in the Sponsor, the Advisor or any of their Affiliates, (ii) employment by the Sponsor, the Advisor or any of their Affiliates, (iii) service as an officer or director of the Sponsor, the Advisor or any of their Affiliates, (iv) performance of services, other than as a Director, for the Company, (v) service as a director or trustee of more than three real estate investment trusts sponsored by the Sponsor or advised by the Advisor, or (vi) maintenance of a material business or professional relationship with the Sponsor, the Advisor or any of their Affiliates. A business or professional relationship is considered material if the gross revenue derived by the Director from the Sponsor, the Advisor and their Affiliates exceeds five percent (5%) of either the Director’s annual gross revenue during either of the last two (2) years or the Director’s net worth on a fair market value basis. An indirect relationship shall include circumstances in which a Director’s spouse, parents, children, siblings, mothers- or fathers-in-law, sons- or daughters-in-law, or brothers- or sisters-in-law is or has been associated with the Sponsor, the Advisor, any of their Affiliates, or the Company.

SECTION 3. REGULAR AND ANNUAL MEETINGS. A meeting of the Directors shall be held at least quarterly in person or by telephone. The Directors may provide, by resolution, the time and place, either within or without the State of Maryland, for the holding of regular meetings of the Directors without other notice than such resolution. An annual meeting of the Directors shall be held immediately after and at the same location as the annual meeting of stockholders.

SECTION 4. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of Directors may be called by or at the request of the chief executive officer or chairman or by a majority of the Directors then in office. The person or persons authorized to call special meetings of the Directors may fix any place, either within or without the State of Maryland, as the place for holding any special meeting of the Directors called by them.

SECTION 5. NOTICE. Notice of any annual, regular or special meeting shall be given by written notice delivered personally, transmitted by facsimile, electronic mail or mailed to each Director at his business or residence address. Personally delivered, facsimile transmitted or electronically mailed notices shall be given at least two (2) days prior to the meeting. Notice by facsimile shall be promptly followed by mailed notice. Notice by mail shall be given at least five (5) days prior to the meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail properly addressed, with postage thereon prepaid. If given by electronic mail, a notice shall be deemed given and received when the electronic mail is transmitted to the recipient's electronic mail address provided in writing by the recipient and electronic confirmation of receipt (either by reply from the recipient or by automated response to a request for delivery receipt) is received by the sending party during normal business hours or on the next business day if not confirmed during normal business hours, and an identical notice is also sent simultaneously by mail, overnight courier or personal delivery as otherwise provided in this Section 5. Except for facsimile and electronic mail notices sent as expressly described above, no notice hereunder shall be effective if sent or delivered by electronic means. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any annual, regular or special meeting of the Directors need be stated in the notice, unless specifically required by statute or these Bylaws.

SECTION 6. QUORUM. A whole number of Directors equal to at least a majority of the whole Board of Directors, including a majority of Independent Directors, shall constitute a quorum for transaction of business at any meeting of the Directors; provided, that if less than a quorum are present at said meeting, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice; and provided further, that if, pursuant to the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the vote of a majority of a particular group of Directors is required for action, a quorum must also include a majority of such group.

The Directors present at a meeting that has been duly called and convened may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough Directors to leave less than a quorum.

SECTION 7. VOTING. The action of the majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the action of the Directors, unless the concurrence of a particular group of Directors or of a greater proportion is required for such action by applicable statute, the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws.

SECTION 8. TELEPHONE MEETINGS. Directors may participate in a meeting by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment if all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in a meeting by these means shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

SECTION 9. INFORMAL ACTION BY DIRECTORS. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Directors may be taken without a meeting, if a consent in writing to such action is signed by each Director and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Directors.

SECTION 10. VACANCIES. If for any reason any or all the Directors cease to be Directors, such event shall not terminate the Company or affect these Bylaws or the powers of the remaining Directors hereunder (even if fewer than three Directors remain). Any vacancy created by an increase in the number of Directors shall be filled, at any regular meeting or at any special meeting of the Directors called for that purpose, by a majority of the entire Board of Directors, although that majority is less than a quorum. Any other vacancy shall be filled at any regular meeting or at any special meeting of the Directors called for that purpose, by a majority of the remaining Directors, whether or not sufficient to constitute a quorum. Any individual so elected as Director shall hold office for the unexpired term of the Director he is replacing. In the event of a vacancy among the Independent Directors, the remaining Independent Directors shall nominate replacements for such position.

SECTION 11. COMPENSATION. Each Director is entitled to receive $35,000 annually for serving on the Board of Directors, as well as fees of $2,000 per meeting of the Board of Directors attended or participated in telephonically. Each Director is entitled to receive $2,000 per Audit Committee meeting attended or participated in telephonically. In addition to the fee for each Audit Committee meeting, the chairman of the Audit Committee shall receive an annual retainer of $10,000 and shall be entitled to receive a fee of $2,000 per meeting attended or telephonic meeting in which such chairman participates with the Company's independent accountants as a representative of the Audit Committee. In addition, each Director is entitled to receive $2,000 per meeting of any other committee of the Board of Directors attended or telephonic meeting of any such committee in which the Director participates. Directors that are members of a special committee are entitled to receive fees of $2,000 per day for service as representatives of such special committee in lieu of the above compensation (to the extent that such Directors devote in excess of three (3) hours on such day to matters relating to such special committee). The Company will not pay any compensation to the Directors of the Company who also serve as officers and directors of the Advisor or are employees of an Affiliate of the Advisor (as such term is defined in the Articles of Incorporation). No additional compensation shall be paid for attending the annual stockholders meeting.

SECTION 12. ELECTION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS; TERM. The stockholders may, at any time, remove any Director in the manner provided in the Articles of Incorporation. The term of service for a Director is one (1) year, without limit on successive terms.

SECTION 13. CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD. The Directors from time to time may elect a chairman of the board. The chairman of the board, if one be elected, shall preside at all meetings of the Directors and of the stockholders, and the chairman of the board shall have and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to the chairman of the board by the Directors. The chairman of the board may delegate to any qualified person authority to chair any meeting of the stockholders, either on a temporary or permanent basis.

SECTION 14. LOSS OF DEPOSITS. No Director shall be liable for any loss which may occur by reason of the failure of the bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or other institution with which moneys or shares have been deposited.

SECTION 15. SURETY BONDS. Unless required by law, no Director shall be obligated to give any bond or surety or other security for the performance of any of his duties.

SECTION 16. RELIANCE. Each Director, officer, employee and agent of the Company shall, in the performance of his duties with respect to the Company, be fully justified and protected with regard to any act or failure to act in reliance in good faith upon the books of account or other records of the Company, upon an opinion of counsel or upon reports made to the Company by any of its officers or employees or by the advisers, accountants, appraisers or other experts or consultants selected by the Directors or officers of the Company, regardless of whether such counsel or expert may also be a Director.

SECTION 17. CERTAIN RIGHTS OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND AGENTS. The Directors shall have no responsibility to devote their full time to the affairs of the Company. Any Director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, in his personal capacity or in a capacity as an affiliate, employee, or agent of any other person, or otherwise, may have business interests and engage in business activities similar to or in addition to those of or relating to the Company, subject to the adoption of any policies relating to such interests and activities adopted by the Directors and applicable law.

ARTICLE IV COMMITTEES

SECTION 1. NUMBER, TENURE AND QUALIFICATIONS. The Directors may, by resolution or resolutions passed by a majority of the whole Board, appoint from among its members an Audit Committee and other committees, composed of two (2) or more Directors to serve at the pleasure of the Directors. At such time, if any, as the Shares become listed on a national securities exchange, the Company will form a Compensation Committee. At least a majority of the members of each committee of the Company's Board of Directors, or if a committee numbers two (2) or less, both directors, must be Independent Directors.

SECTION 2. POWERS. The Directors may delegate to committees appointed under Section 1 of this Article IV any of the powers of the Board of Directors; provided, however, that the Directors may not delegate to any committee the power to declare dividends or other Distributions (as such term is defined in the Articles of Incorporation), elect Directors, issue Equity Shares in the Company other than as provided in the next sentence, recommend to the stockholders any action which requires stockholder approval, amend the Bylaws or approve any merger or share exchange which does not require stockholder approval. If the Board of Directors has given general authorization for the issuance of Equity Shares in the Company to a committee of the Board, in accordance with a general formula or method specified by the Board by resolution or by adoption of an option or other plan, such committee may fix the terms of the Equity Shares subject to classification or reclassification and the terms on which the shares may be issued, including all terms and conditions required or permitted to be established or authorized by the Board of Directors.

SECTION 3. COMMITTEE PROCEDURES. Each committee may fix rules of procedure for its business.
